

U.S. Rep. Barry Loudermilk

Congressman Barry Loudermilk, a Constitutional Conservative, represents northwest Georgia's 11th Congressional District.

In the 116th Congress, Rep. Loudermilk serves as a member the U.S. House Financial Services Committee, is the Ranking Member of the committee's Task Force on Artificial Intelligence, serves on the Committee on House Administration, and the Joint Committee on the Library. Barry also serves as a member of the Republican Study Committee (RSC), a conservative caucus of House Republicans.

Before being elected to Congress in 2014, Barry Loudermilk was a small business owner for over 20 years. He also served in the Georgia State legislature for nine years.

A Georgia native, Rep. Loudermilk holds an Associate Degree in Telecommunications Technology, and a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Education and Information Systems Technology. He proudly served in the U.S. Air Force for eight years in the intelligence and technology and fields.

Loudermilk is the former owner of an information technology services business, and is an author, historian, and motivational speaker.

Barry and his wife Desiree have been married since 1983. They reside in northwest Georgia and have three grown children and four grandchildren.

###